Kentucky Democrats are Looking for a Leader.

A special from Frankfort to The Commercial Gazette says it has been talked around there that a number of Democratic politicians, among whom are alleged to be ex-Speaker W. M. Moore, Judge W. W. McRae, Senator G. W. of Cincinnati, Judge Charles Helm of Newport, State Senator Garrett S. Wall of Maysville, and others, have been making overtures to secure the withdrawal of two of the candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor, General P. W. Hardin and Hon. C. M. Clay, Jr.

The canvass between Mr. Clay and General Hardin has been rapidly approaching a point of bitterness, which promises to make the contest between them exceedingly hot.

It is also said that these conferences have come to the conclusion that this sort of thing is necessary in order to save the whole Democratic ticket from defeat next year.

At present General Hardin is generally regarded as the lead in the nomination, and the prospect for his winning, it is said, has disengaged the party leaders, who regard him as an easy mark for the Republicans if he should be the Democratic nominee.

General Hardin was for twelve years Attorney General, and is naturally regarded as a part of the ancient machinery which he has been running the state through.

Mr. Clay is not regarded as able to meet Colonel Bradley on the stump, and therefore he is not considered as an available candidate either.

It is claimed that if the deal could be worked by retiring both of the present candidates, Congressman James B. McCrory would be entered. It is thought McCrory would add considerable strength to the ticket. There seems to be no likelihood of the negotiations going through.

The News says Judge A. E. Cole of this city has purchased J. E. McKinley's interest in the Dover Canning Factory.

Captain W. H. R. Marks of Foster was considerably bruised by being dragged by an electric car in Covington. He was about to get off the car while in motion and stepped in the opposite direction from which the car was going. He was dragged about sixty feet.

DEMOCRATIC PARENTAGE.

Mr. Editor: Under whose Administration was the Civil Service reform brought before the public, and what year?

—A. T. ENNIS, May 1865.

In brief, our valued subscriber is informed that the Civil Service reform movement was agitated under several Administrations, beginning with that of Mr. Lincoln. It was first proposed by Senator Jencks of Rhode Island, and afterwards championed by Senator B. Gratz Brown of Missouri. It was a fact that did not take practical shape until 1873, when Senator George H. Pendleton of Ohio, who was Chairman of the Civil Service Committee, took an active part in the movement. This was during the Garfield-Arthur Administration. The law has been changed from time to time, so that if the late Mr. Pendleton should meet it in the middle of the road he wouldn't know it.

Captain Robert Neal, a prominent Gold fellow, died at Vanceburg. He was the brother of Judge A. Neal, the lawyer and politician.

Statehood Anniversary.
On account of the above occasion the C. and O. will sell round trip tickets Maysville to Atlanta and return at one fare, $5, on November 30th, good returning on the 30th or December 1st. Trains leave at 5:30 p. m. Only 90 minutes ride.

Return Engagement.

There is perhaps no phase of the romantic production which marks so strongly the difference between the modern presentations and that of the early days of the drama. In itself, recently, as the scenic setting, with which plays are now surrounded. There were then and are still, satanic Mephisto and love-lorn Faustus, animated Dame Martha and tender and affectionate Marguerite, but the Mephisto, Faustus and Marguerite of today have the advantage over their predecessors in moving amid scenes that create an atmosphere of reality about them and aid the imagination by presenting scenes and places, the counterpart of which their supposed tragedians occurred. Such will be the production of Manager Churchill in this city, and it will be a sight when the stage will be filled by a series of interesting pictures, showing the locality made famous by the immortal locality.

SPRINGDALE.

Mrs. Elizabeth Doyal of Maysville is visiting relatives here.

Dr. Galvin of Maysville was calling on friends here Tuesday.

Mrs. Tillie Applegate, who has been very ill for some time, is able to be out again.

Our school is progressing nicely under the care and intelligent guidance of H. C. Wilson of Orangeburg.

Ahert Emmons has moved into the tidy little house lately vacated by Professor W. W. George and family.

C. C. Dugan has already in the crib about 1,000 bushels of corn, and has about 500 more yet to gather.

Miss Azaria Weaver left Wednesday for Frankfort, where she expects to make a home for herself.

Victor Emmons is especially shot around his brother Harry Saturday last. The ball entered the leg just above the knee, inflicting a painful but not dangerous wound.

MORANBURG.

Hog killing is the order of the day now.

Miss Anna Etel gave a dance last week.

Miss Becca Brittan gave a dance last week.

Mr. Lee Scott of Bath county is visiting relatives here.

Miss Anna Lindsay of Manchester is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. T. Marsh.

Mr. Will Moran had a hog to die one day this week from what was supposed to be a tick. The hog was cleaned and hung up to smoke grease. That night some thief stole it.

In a letter from Miss Jessie Moran, who is visiting in Oklahoma, she says she has been ill with a fever. The people live in dugouts as houses, built in the ground. Deer, antelope and wild game are plenty. It is common to hear men growling and barking at night.

Our community was shocked Wednesday morning by the death of Miss Mary McNutt. She had been in failing health for some time, but had been improving. Her son, the Rev. Dr. W. W. McNutt, was not at home when the news came. Below are some evidences of the business reversion that treads on the heel of the greatest Republican victory.—EDWARD.

Commercial Gazette: J. G. Williams, representing a New York supply house, is in the city, en route to San Francisco, to dispose of his goods. He makes a tour of the country from Boston to the Pacific Coast, twice a year. Said to be a leading, in demand, and popular speaker, and an improvement, particularly in this west.

Mr. Clay is not regarded as able to meet Colonel Bradley on the stump, and therefore he is not considered as an available candidate either.

It is claimed that if the deal could be worked by retiring both of the present candidates, Congressman James B. McCrory would be entered. It is thought McCrory would add considerable strength to the ticket. There seems to be no likelihood of the negotiations going through.

INDEMNITY.

Japan is Tendered a Stupendous Sum by China.

The Amount is 100,000,000 Taels and the War Expenses of Japan.

China Knows the Wig is Up and Wants to Settle. At Washington the Amount is Considered Excessive, and a Smaller Sum May Be Agreed Upon.

HAKATA, Nov. 23.—It is reported that China has intimated that she will offer to pay a war indemnity of 100,000,000 taels and in addition pay all the war expenses incurred by Japan.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—In accordance with a report of the Associated Press, the state department has notified Minister Dun, at Tokio, and Mr. Denby, at Pekin, to transmit such direct offer as China may wish to make. A time sufficient time has not yet arrived to determine whether China will consent to make an offer direct and definite, as Japan insists must be done.

An Associated Press cable from Japan states that China has intimated her willingness to pay an indemnity of 100,000,000 taels, and in addition pay all the war expenses incurred by Japan.

As the war expenses reach 150,000,000 taels, the total offer of China would be 250,000,000 taels. This is equivalent in silver coin worth about seventy-five cents at the present exchange, so that the whole payment would be approximately $175,000,000 American.

The amount is regarded here as quite large, and the settled arrangement between the two nations could be effected on terms providing for a smaller war indemnity. Diplomats here say that under ordinary circumstances it would take a long time to induce the Chinese to present their offer to Minister Denby, but owing to the fact that the Japanese are now at the walls of Port Arthur, about to make the last blow at China's greatest fortress, it is anticipated that the offer will be made to him to a conclusion.

It is expected that Minister Denby will transmit the offer by telegraph to Tien Tsin and Shanghai, and thence by cable to Yokohama. The understanding is that China and Japan will pay the expenses of the American ministers incident to the negotiation.

The advance on Port Arthur is regarded as having an important bearing on the peace negotiations. Lieut. M. J. K. Johnson, the American Legation here, says that the advance movement has been most cautious, as the ground for forty miles around Port Arthur has been found fairly alive with Japanese troops. The Japanese are said to be in a position to attack Tien Tsin and Shanghai.

The regular roads could not be used for the artillery, as it would have been blown up, and accordingly the big guns have had to be moved in circuitous routes through woods and morass. It is said that the Japanese operations march will have been completed this day, and the Japanese legation is hourly expecting word that the decisive blow has been struck, though a long siege will be necessary.

Fort Arthur was not the strongest defense of modern times. It is believed that a Japanese success would quickly close the peace negotiations, but that a resolute would impel China to hold off further.

Watertown a Bass.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 23.—George K. Whiteworth died Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock, having lived eight days after the tragedy in which he played so important a part. He sent two telegrams through his body after he had been shot, and the last words he uttered and the wounds were so severe it was thought death would ensue almost immediately, but proved remarkably tenacious of life. He sank into a stupor at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, but became conscious again a short while before death.

Gen. Booth in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Gen. Booth, of the Salvation army, arrived in Chicago on Thursday, and after a few hours' rest was tendered a reception by the Chicago Press club. He is an addition, especially to the social life of the city, which he has received in the Eastern cities. Gen. Booth will remain in Chicago until next Thursday, and elaborate preparations have been made by the Salvation army for his various public appearances.

Gold Coming in.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The New York agency of a large Canadian institution has received from its correspondents at San Francisco $250,000 in gold with the last two days, and $100,000 gold with the day before. The gold is sent to Montreal to its agency in this city for the purpose of subscribing to the government loan. A Wall street banking firm with Paris and San Francisco connections, is also receiving small parcels of gold from California.

An Insurance Redesigned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Frank and George Brilli, two American prospectors, have discovered an old Spanish gold mine, sixty miles north of here, and from samples of the ore, it is believed the mine is one of fabulous richness, worked a century ago.

Big Ships Ordnance.

BOSTON, Nov. 23.—The Cunard Catalonia, which was due in port last Monday, has not yet arrived. The West India line steamer, which left Liverpool two days before the Catalonia left, has not yet been sighted.

Livery Stable Burned.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 23.—Two firemen of the city fire department destroyed Lemay Baker's livery stable, together with six horses, twelve vehicles and all the hay and corn in stock. It also damaged several adjoining houses. Total loss, $1,000.

San Bauer Causes Extrication.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 23.—Great excitement has been caused throughout the Puget sound country by what is looked upon as an eruption of Mount Tacoma or Rainier, of 14,444 feet high, and one of the loftiest peaks in the state.

VERY WARLIKE.

The Tone of the Mexican Papers is Favor of a War with Guatemala.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 23.—The Universal, a Thursday, contained a very warlike article regarding the Mexican-Guatemalan trouble. It says:

"In consequence of the continued attacks against Mexico and her government, made by the United States, it is rumored Wednesday morning this country would declare diplomatic relations with Guatemala at an end."

Continuing, it makes the following observations on Mexicans and Mexican fighting qualities: "In Guatemala they say the Mexicans always fed before the Americans and the French."

"The world knows that the Mexican soldiers never turn their backs, Churruca, Chapultepec, Puebla, etc., are witnesses of that."

With Guatemala we do not expect the glory or the gain of laurels. We have often the temerity and they have the strength, and they are not to be despised, and our people are not in a humor to listen to the diatribes of the Guatemalan press."

GHASTLY FIND.

Thirty Bodies Piled Together in the Murders' Cave in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 23.—A hideous discovery has just been made near the town of Chiribin, in the state of Michoacan, by a freighter named Fausto.

The find consisted of thirty human bodies in an advanced state of decomposition and piled one upon another in a cave, which was almost impenetrable on account of the stench arising therefrom.

Antonio Jiminez, a native of China, and a freighter by occupation, had his head mashed to a pulp by a revolver, and his body cut into pieces. Clodius Gomez, another man, was robbed and murdered for his money at the same place shortly afterward. Pascual, another of the last victim, while trying to reach safety, was shot in the back, which explains many mysterious murders which have occurred in Michoacan in the last few months by a notorious gang of bandits.

The Car Depressed in Spirit.

BOSTON, Nov. 23.—The Associated Press says that Emperor Nicholas is suffering greatly from insomnia, and is consequently very much depressed in spirit. The czarina has become very much emaciated as the result of her vigils at the bedside of her husband.

Longview, Nov. 23.—A dispatch from the Che Foo to the Central News says that all the vessels of the Japanese fleet are now at Taliens-Wan, and troops are marching southward to attack Port Arthur. The Chinese there are making preparations to present a determined front to the enemy.

Fractured Vertebra.

FARIBORO, N. H., Nov. 23.—Kennebunk Brown, aged 23, went to his father's home on Thursday and raised a quarrel with the family. Mrs. Brown, foreseeing trouble, called to Lewis Moore, her son, and he came to his home.

Longview, Nov. 23.—A dispatch from the Che Foo to the Central News says that all the vessels of the Japanese fleet are now at Taliens-Wan, and troops are marching southward to attack Port Arthur. The Chinese there are making preparations to present a determined front to the enemy.

Terribly Burned by Powder.

GALINELLO, O., Nov. 23.—Dwight Williams, a miner living at Vinton, the county seat, with his son and a friend Wednesday, was a powder explosion which sent his son hurt with the disease. Young Hazard is the faithful son who recklessly exposed himself to the disease. All business is suspended in the town, and no meetings of any kind are held.
